GOLDEN LEAVES
FROM THE
BRITISH POETS.

COLLECTED BY JOHN W. S. HOWE.

The design of this volume was to collect in one portable volume all the celebrated minor poems of the British Poets. It is believed, therefore, to possess great practical value, and is only affording a noble collection of the "Golden Leaves," but is presenting in a convenient and accessible form those numerous gems of British poetry to which all have occasion to refer.

The size of this volume is a convenient 16mo. It is printed with great care on highly calendar'd tinted paper, and bound in a peculiarly elegant and attractive style.

JOHN A. DIX.

2 Vol., 8vo, cloth, price, $7.00.

The first volume contains the SPEECHES made in the Senate of the United States, which discuss most of the important subjects before Congress from 1844 to 1859, embracing the War with Mexico, the Organization of the Territories, the Mexican Boundary, the Slaveholding, and the Southern Secession, and the result of the acquisition. The discussion of the latter question has acquired new importance from the existing war was undertaken and waged for the perpetuation and extension of the Union. The speech of Mr. Dix on the conduct of the rebellion, and his efforts to limit its extent, will be read at this period as a constitutional existence.

The second volume contains a few speeches in the Senate, and New-York Legislature, occasional addresses, and a few official reports.

The last of the official reports in the second volume was made by him while Secretary of the Treasury, setting forth in most detail the extraordinary movements in Louisiana, and in some of the Southern States at the commencement of the Rebellion. To this report will be annexed a statement of the original order to shoot on the spot any one who should attempt to land on the American Flag.

The most important and timely book of the season, which should be CIRCULATED EVERYWHERE.

THE STANDARD WORK ON EMANCIPATION.

MANY THOUSANDS have already seen sold and the demand is constantly increasing.

Read the following letters from the first statesmen of the country. FARR'S WAR MAP, its importance.

The publication of the book at this time is peculiarly opportune. Written by a foreigner, it removes the imputation of falsehood or prevarication, or of being duped up for an association, while at the same time it periodical appears to give the world a true account of what is done. It will have a wide circulation everywhere, and especially in the Middle and Southern States. I say largely, because the Border States, I may say, we may never have a border, over the ocean and around the world, to which the book can be sent.

The book is the master key to the negro question in general, treated here, practically, at the same time isolating on the great moral laws which lie at the base of everything which really concerns the social condition of the race.

It is gratifying to see a book like this, in the midst of the political strife, which has been created by the discussion of the subject. Its calm, convincing reasons, and its entirely disposes of the boughs by which the questions of Emancipation and Slavery have been used to frighten timid people, and enable them to obtain political power.

From the Tribune, State of Kentucky.

It is a book calculated to do great good, and I will take an active interest in having it circulated and read in Kentucky. Since my early manhood, I have ever believed that Slavery is the greatest National sin upon which the sun looks down. My heart is full of love for the slaves, and I am anxious to do all I can to help them. I have a book which is a valuable and powerful book, and it may be had at any time, for a small sum.
